

Follow the Prophet

Noah was a prophet called to preach the word. Tried to cry repentance, but nobody heard. They were busy sinning - Noah preached in vain. They wished they had listened when they saw the rain.

Abraham the prophet prayed to have a son, so the Lord sent Isaac as the chosen one. Isaac begat Jacob, known as Israel; Jacob's sons were twelve tribes, so the Bible tells.

Moses was a prophet sent to Israel. He would lead them to the promised land to dwell. They were slow to follow, or so it appeared. They were in the wilderness for forty years.

Samuel was a prophet chosen as a boy. Hannah promised God her son would serve with joy. In the tabernacle, Samuel heard his name; He was called by God and answered, "Here I am!"

Jonah was a prophet, tried to run away, but he later learned to listen and obey. When we really try, the Lord won't let us fail; that's what Jonah learned deep down inside the whale.

Daniel was a prophet. He refused to sin; so the king threw Daniel in the lion's den. Angels calmed the lions, and the king soon saw Daniel's power was great,
for he obeyed God's law.

Nephi was a prophet. He chose to obey all of the commandments, that the Lord did say.

Nephi was courageous, valiant, and true.
What the Lord commanded, he would go and do.

Then came the Restoration. Joseph sought the Lord.
He restored the fullness of the Savior's word.
The Book of Mormon teaches all that we must be to come unto the Savior; the Gospel is the key.

President Hinckley is our prophet; his words are from the Lord. When we heed his council, we are in accord. Be Grateful, True, and Humble; Be Prayerful, Clean and Smart. He says that we'll be happy; just take the "B's" to heart.

Follow the prophet, follow the prophet, follow the prophet; don't go astray. Follow the prophet, follow the prophet, follow the prophet; he knows the way.
